Dear Clerk:

This letter is to comment on 8.4G concerning comments lawyers can make concerning married couples. Our State and Nation have always recognized a married couple as a union between a man and a women. I am against laws, rules or anything else in regard to same sex marriages. They chose to be married and that life style, so need to accept it and not be sensitive to comments. If a lawyer or anyone makes a comment it should be considered freedom of speech and not have fear of retaliation.

Yours truly,

Norma Kelly
